Information:

The Premium skirting board QS011P is a multifunctional profile designed for aesthetically finishing interiors. It can be used as a classic skirting board, wall trim, ceiling fixture, or decorative element with LED backlighting. The specially designed rear surface allows for the concealment of cables, eliminating visible wires. The SupremeSatin coating provides a satin finish and requires no painting. It is resistant to moisture, scratches, and minor mechanical damage, making it ideal for high-traffic areas. Installation is straightforward without the need for additional processing, with recommended mounting using adhesive.
