Referention number: MD358F

Information:

The flexible skirting board MD358F is designed for finishing surfaces with non-standard shapes, such as columns and pillars. It features FLEX properties that allow it to adapt to curved surfaces. Made from moisture-resistant material, it is also resistant to UV radiation and minor mechanical damage—meaning it won't yellow, deform, or swell. The classic profile with subtle embossing complements various interior designs. It can be painted with solvent-free paints. Installation is straightforward with the recommended adhesive, requiring no professional tools.
