Manufacturer: Klemp

Referention number: MDB080

Information:

The MDB080 ceiling strip is designed for an aesthetically pleasing finish at the junction of walls and ceilings. Its universal shape allows for installation in spaces with various styles, from classic to modern. It helps conceal minor irregularities at the junction of walls and ceilings, enhancing the uniformity of the surface. It provides a subtle visual transition between planes, aiding in the optical arrangement of the space. Installation does not require specialized tools; the strip is designed for application using mounting adhesive. It is intended for indoor use - in living rooms, bedrooms, and hallways.
