Information:

The MDD316 wall strip is a decorative profile designed for aesthetically dividing walls or as a component of an interior design composition. Its minimalist design featuring distinct milling in the center complements various interior styles. Made from lightweight ProFoam material, it is resistant to moisture and UV radiation, ensuring it won't yellow or crumble under light exposure. Its low weight allows for easy installation at any height. Suitable for areas exposed to humidity, such as bathrooms and kitchens. Installation is recommended using mounting adhesive.
