Manufacturer: Klemp

Referention number: C4001W

Information:

The C4001W column is designed for the arrangement of residential, commercial, and public interiors. It is made from ProFoam – a lightweight material with enhanced resistance to mechanical damage, moisture, and UV radiation. The smooth, unscored surface allows for seamless integration with various bases and caps, offering extensive stylistic matching possibilities. It is coated with a primer layer that enables painting with water-based paints. Installation of the column is done using mounting adhesive and does not require specialized tools.
